Paolo's Written Cinema Response:

My wife and I used to go to the cinema before COVID. I think the last movie we saw was just before the pandemic. I can't remember what it was, but since I'm quite a romantic, it was probably a romantic comedy. These days, when we're not too tired, we'd rather stay at home and watch a good series like Money Heist. I'm passionate about action movies like Top Gun and Rocky, but sometimes I feel like watching an animated film or a family movie.
