Paolo's Speaking Homework

Date: 20/05/2026

Prompt 1

Question: Tell me about a time you started a new job, school, or project and immediately worked very hard. What did you do?

Target idiom: hit the ground running

Paolo's answer:

Studying English can be hard, but I hit the ground running.
I was studyng English for eight months with energy and entusiams

Prompt 2

Question: What is one skill or habit you find difficult, but you continue to practise anyway? Why don't you give up?

Target idiom: keep at it

Paolo's answer:

I try to study English every day but I realize that it can be diffcul but keep at it.
If you want be more healthy you need to work out three times a week, you keep at it

Prompt 3

Question: Describe a person in your life (a teacher, colleague, or friend) who always does more than expected. Give an example.

Target idiom: go the extra mile

Paolo's answer:

Parents goes the extra mile to make sure that everything will be well for children
My boss goes the extra mile to save some progress of the tasks

Prompt 4

Question: Have you ever taken on too many things at once? What happened, and what did you learn?

Target idiom: bite off more than you can chew

Paolo's answer:

I know I bite off more than I can chew for my family but sometimes i can't .
I'm studying Enghish and German..perhaps I bite off more than I can chew.

Prompt 5

Question: Talk about a goal that sounds simple but is actually hard for you. Why is it harder in practice?

Target idiom: easier said than done

Paolo's answer:

Speaking English is easier said than done.
but I keep at it.

Prompt 6

Question: Describe a situation at work or with friends where it was important that everyone agreed or understood the plan.

Target idiom: on the same page

Paolo's answer:

We'll start a new project but we would be on the same page tomorrow.
My wife and I are on the same page how to raise our children

Prompt 7

Question: Do you prefer people who speak very directly, or people who speak more politely and indirectly? Why?

Target idiom: beat around the bush

Paolo's answer:

I dont' appreciate people beat around the bush.
Politicians beat around the bush and speak indirectly.
Stop beat around the bush and tell me the truth.

Prompt 8

Question: When was the last time you had to give important news or feedback to someone? How did you say it?

Target idiom: get straight to the point

Paolo's answer:

I usually get straight to the point but sometimes I realize that tell the truth and speak directly can be more difficult.